68/... The United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy Review

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, contained in General Assembly resolution 60/288 of 8 September 2006, and recalling Assembly resolution 66/282 of 29 June 2012 which called for, inter alia, an examination in two years of progress made in the implementation of the Strategy and for consideration to be given to updating it to respond to changes, as provided for in those resolutions,

Recalling the pivotal role of the General Assembly in following up the implementation and the updating of the Strategy,

Recalling also General Assembly resolution 66/10 of 18 November 2011, and noting with appreciation that the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre has initiated its activities and will contribute to strengthening the United Nations counter-terrorism efforts,

Recognizing the important work carried out by the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre within the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force Office, in accordance with the General Assembly resolution A/RES/66/10, and its role in building the capacity of Member States counter and respond to terrorism, and encouraging Member States to provide resources and voluntary contributions to the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre in this regard,

Renewing its unwavering commitment to strengthening international cooperation to prevent and combat terrorism in all its forms and manifestations,

Reaffirming that terrorism cannot and should not be associated with any religion, nationality, civilization or ethnic group,

Expressing concern at the increase of incidents of kidnapping and hostage taking committed by terrorist groups with the aim of raising funds or gaining political concessions in some regions and notes that ransoms paid to terrorists are one of the sources of income for their activities, including further kidnapping by terrorists,

Noting with appreciation the continued contribution of United Nations entities and subsidiary bodies of the Security Council to the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force,

Recognizing that international cooperation and any measures taken by Member States to prevent and combat terrorism must fully comply with their obligations under international law, including the Charter of the United Nations, in particular the purposes and principles thereof, and relevant international conventions and protocols, in particular human rights law, refugee law and international humanitarian law,

Recognizing the need for Member States to prevent the abuse of non-governmental, non-profit and charitable organizations by and for terrorists, and calling upon non-governmental, non-profit, and charitable organizations to prevent and oppose, as appropriate, attempts by terrorists to abuse this status, while reaffirming to fully respect the rights to freedom of expression and association of individuals in civil society and freedom of religion or belief of all persons,

Convinced that the General Assembly is the competent organ, with universal membership, to address the issue of international terrorism,

Mindful of the need to enhance the role of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, within their mandates, in the implementation of the Strategy,

Underlining the fact that the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force should continue to carry out its activities within the framework of its mandate, with policy guidance offered by Member States through interaction with the General Assembly on a regular basis,

Reaffirming that acts, methods and practices of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations are activities aimed at the destruction of human rights, fundamental freedoms and democracy, threatening territorial integrity, security of States and destabilizing legitimately constituted Governments, and that the international community should take the necessary steps to enhance cooperation to prevent and combat terrorism,

Reiterating the obligation of Member States to prevent and suppress the financing of terrorist acts, and criminalize the wilful provision or collection, by any means, directly or indirectly, of funds by their nationals or in their territories with the intention that the funds should be used, or in the knowledge that they are to be used, in order to carry out terrorist acts,

Recognizing the role of partnership of regional and sub-regional organizations with the United Nations in combating terrorism and encouraging Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force in accordance with its mandate to closely cooperate and coordinate with the regional and sub-regional organizations' efforts with aim to combat terrorism,

Alarmed by the acts of intolerance, violent extremism, violence, including sectarian violence, and terrorism in various parts of the world, which claim innocent lives, cause destruction and displace people, and rejecting the use of violence, regardless of any motivation,

Recognizing* the commitment of all religions to peace, and determined to condemn acts of violent extremism and incitement to commit terrorist acts, that spread hate and threaten lives,

Recognizing* the role that victims of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations can play, including in countering the appeal of terrorism, and emphasizing the need to promote international solidarity in support of victims of terrorism and to ensure that victims of terrorism are treated with dignity and respect,

Reaffirming* that the promotion and protection of human rights for all and the rule of law is essential to all components of the Strategy, recognizes that effective counter-terrorism measures and the protection of human rights are not conflicting goals, but complementary and mutually reinforcing, and stresses the need to promote and protect the rights of victims of terrorism,

Taking note* of the important contribution of women to the implementation of the Global Counter Terrorism Strategy, and encouraging Member States, UN entities and international, regional and subregional organizations to consider the participation of women in efforts to prevent and counter terrorism,

Reaffirming* the commitment of Member States undertaking the following measures aimed at addressing the conditions conducive to the spread of terrorism, including but not limited to prolonged unresolved conflicts, dehumanization of victims of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, lack of the rule of law and violations of human rights, ethnic, national and religious discrimination, political exclusion, socio-economic marginalization and lack of good governance, while recognizing that none of these conditions can excuse or justify acts of terrorism,

1. Reiterates its strong and unequivocal condemnation* of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, committed by whomever, wherever and for whatever purposes;

2. Reaffirms* the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy and its four pillars, which constitute an ongoing effort, and calls upon Member States, the United Nations and other appropriate international, regional and subregional organizations to step up their efforts to implement the Strategy in an integrated and balanced manner and in all its aspects;

3. Stresses* the importance of keeping the United Nations Global Counter Terrorism Strategy relevant and contemporary in light of emerging new threats and evolving trends of international terrorism;

4. Takes note* of the report of the Secretary-General entitled "United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy: activities of the United Nations system in implementing the Strategy"¹, and welcomes the new summary matrix of counter-terrorism projects implemented by United Nations entities around the world and the efforts deployed by the CTITF Office in this regard, and underlines the importance of providing the necessary resources for the implementation of these projects;

5. Also takes note of the measures that Member States and relevant international, regional and subregional organizations have adopted within the framework of the Strategy, as presented in the report of the Secretary-General and at the fourth biennial review of the Strategy, on 12 and 13 June 2014, all of which strengthen cooperation to fight terrorism, including through the exchange of best practices;

6. Reaffirms the principal responsibility of Member States to implement the Strategy, while further recognizing the need to enhance the important role that the United Nations, including the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force, plays, in coordination with other international, regional and subregional organizations, as appropriate, in facilitating and promoting coordination and coherence in the implementation of the Strategy at the national, regional and global levels and in providing assistance, upon request by Member States, especially in the area of capacity-building;

7. Affirms the importance of the integrated and balanced implementation of all pillars of the Strategy, recognizing the importance of redoubling efforts for even attention to and implementation of all the pillars of the Strategy;

8. Stresses the significance of a sustained and comprehensive approach including by stronger efforts, where necessary, to address conditions conducive to the spread of terrorism, bearing in mind that terrorism will not be defeated by military force, law enforcement measures, and intelligence operations alone;

9. Recognizes the principal responsibility of Member States to implement the Strategy, while encouraging the further elaboration and development of national, subregional and regional plans, as appropriate, to support the implementation of the Strategy;

10. Encourages civil society, including non-governmental organizations, to engage, as appropriate, in efforts to enhance the implementation of the Strategy, including through interaction with Member States and the United Nations system; encourages Member States and the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force and its entities to enhance engagement with civil society in accordance with their mandates, as appropriate, and support its role in the implementation of the Strategy;

11. Calls upon Member States and the United Nations entities involved in supporting counter-terrorism efforts to continue to facilitate the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms, as well as due process and the rule of law, while countering terrorism;

12. Urges all States to respect and protect the right to privacy as set out in article 12 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and article 17 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, including in the context of digital communication, also while countering terrorism, in accordance with international law, in particular international human rights law, and to take measures to ensure that interferences with or restrictions on that right are not arbitrary, are adequately regulated by law, subject to effective oversight, and to appropriate redress, including through judicial review or other legal means;

13. Urges Member States to ensure that any measures taken or means employed to counter-terrorism, including the use of remotely piloted aircraft, comply with their obligations under international law, including the Charter of the United Nations, human rights law and international humanitarian law, in particular the principles of distinction and proportionality;

14. Recognizes the work done and efforts made by the relevant United Nations bodies and entities and other international, regional, and subregional organizations aimed at supporting, recognizing and protecting the rights of victims of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, and urges them to step up their efforts to provide, upon request, technical assistance for building the capacity of Member States in the development and implementation of programmes of assistance and support for victims of terrorism;

15. Deeply deplors the suffering caused by terrorism to the victims of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations and their families, expresses its profound solidarity with them, encourages the Member States of providing them with proper support and assistance while taking into account, inter alia, when appropriate, remembrance, dignity, respect, justice and truth, in accordance with international law;

16. Welcomes efforts of the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force to increase its transparency, accountability, and effectiveness, and calls upon Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force including United Nations Counter-Terrorism Center to improve the strategic nature and impact of its programs and policies;

17. Calls upon States that have not done so to consider becoming parties in a timely manner to the existing international conventions and protocols against terrorism, and upon all States to make every effort to conclude a comprehensive convention on international terrorism, and recalls the commitments of Member States with regard to the implementation of General Assembly and Security Council resolutions relating to international terrorism;

18. Underlines, in that regard, the importance of greater coordination among United Nations entities and of the work of the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force to ensure overall coordination and coherence in the counter-terrorism efforts of the United Nations system, as well as the need to continue promoting transparency and to avoid duplication in their work;

19. Recognizes the continued need to enhance the visibility and effectiveness of United Nations counter-terrorism activities and ensure greater cooperation, coordination and coherence among United Nations entities, with a view to maximizing synergies, promoting transparency and greater efficiencies and avoiding duplication of their work;

20. Reaffirms the need for enhanced dialogue among the counter-terrorism officials of Member States to promote international, regional and subregional cooperation and wider dissemination of knowledge of the Strategy in order to counter terrorism, and in that regard recalls the role of the United Nations system, in particular the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force, in promoting international cooperation and capacity-building as elements of the Strategy;

21. Recognizes the role of the regional organizations, structures and strategies in combating terrorism, and encourages them to consider using best practices developed by other regions in their fight against terrorism, as appropriate, taking into account their specific regional and national circumstances;

22. Recalls that all States must cooperate fully in the fight against terrorism, in accordance with their obligations under international law, in order to find, deny safe haven and bring to justice, on the basis of the principle of extradite or prosecute, any person who supports, facilitates, participates or attempts to participate in the financing, planning, preparation or commission of terrorist acts or provides safe havens;

23. Emphasizes that tolerance and dialogue among civilizations and the enhancement of interfaith and intercultural understanding and respect among people, including at national, regional and global levels, while avoiding escalation of hatred, are among the most important elements in promoting cooperation and in combating terrorism and in countering violent extremism and welcomes the various initiatives to this end;

24. Urges all Member States to unite against violent extremism in all its forms and manifestations as well as sectarian violence, encourages the efforts of leaders to discuss within their communities the causes of violent extremism and discrimination and to evolve strategies to address these causes, and underlines that States, regional organizations, non-governmental organizations, religious bodies and the media have an important role to play in promoting tolerance and respect for religious and cultural diversity;

25. Expresses concern over terrorist acts committed by lone terrorists in various parts of the world, and recognizes the need to address this issue;

26. Underlines the importance of multilateral efforts in combating terrorism and refraining from any practices inconsistent with International Law and the principles of the United Nations Charter;

27. Expresses its concern at the increasing use, in a globalized society, by terrorist and their supporters of information and communications technologies; in particular the Internet and other media, and the use of such technologies to commit, incite, recruit for, fund, or plan terrorist acts, and notes the importance of cooperation among stakeholders in the implementation of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, including among Member States, international, regional and subregional organisations, the private sector and civil society, to address this issue, while respecting human rights and fundamental freedoms, and in compliance with International Law and the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, and reiterates that these technologies can be powerful tools in countering the spread of terrorism including by promoting tolerance and dialogue among people and peace;

28. Calls upon all Member States to prevent terrorists from benefiting from ransom payments or from political concessions and to secure the safe release of hostages, in accordance with all relevant legal obligations, and encourages Member States to cooperate closely during such incidents of kidnapping and hostage taking by terrorist groups;

29. Encourages all Member States to collaborate with the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre and to contribute to the implementation of its activities within the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force;

30. Encourages Member States to cooperate, share information and develop national strategies and capabilities to prevent terrorists from acquiring or using nuclear, chemical or biological weapons and their means of delivery, and to counter the use of improvised explosive devices by terrorists;

31. Notes with appreciation the activities undertaken in the area of capacity-building by United Nations entities, including the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force, in coordination with other relevant international, regional and subregional organizations to assist Member States, upon their request, in implementing the Strategy, and encourages the Task Force to ensure focused delivery of capacity-building assistance, including in the framework of the Integrated Assistance for Countering Terrorism Initiative;

32. Expresses its concern at the increasing flow of international recruits to terrorist organizations, including foreign terrorist fighters, and at the threat it poses for all Member States; encourages all Member States to address this threat by enhancing their cooperation and developing relevant measures to prevent and tackle this phenomenon, including information sharing, border management to detect travels and appropriate criminal justice response, and to consider the use of the United Nations instruments, such as the United Nations sanctions regimes, as well as cooperation;

33. Recognizes the need to continue to take measures to prevent and suppress the financing of terrorism, and in this regard encourages United Nations entities to cooperate with Member States and to continue to provide assistance, upon their request, in particular, to help them to fully implement their respective international obligations to combat the financing of terrorism;

34. Calls upon all States to adopt such measures as may be necessary and appropriate and in accordance with their obligations under international law to; prohibit by law incitement to commit a terrorist act or acts, prevent such conduct, deny safe haven to any persons with respect to whom there is credible and relevant information giving serious reasons for considering that they have been guilty of such conduct;

35. Calls for the enhanced engagement of Member States with the work of the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force;

36. Requests the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force to continue its positive efforts in interacting with Member States, and further requests the Task Force to continue to provide quarterly briefings and to provide a periodic work plan for the Task Force, including the activities of the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre;

37. Encourages the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force to work closely with Member States and relevant international, regional and subregional organizations to identify and share best practices to prevent terrorist attacks on particularly vulnerable targets, and recognizes the importance of developing public-private partnerships in this area;

38. Recalls all General Assembly resolutions on measures to eliminate international terrorism and relevant General Assembly resolutions on the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism and all Security Council resolutions related to international terrorism and calls upon Member States to cooperate fully with the relevant bodies of the United Nations in the fulfilment of their tasks, recognizing that many States continue to require assistance in implementing these resolutions;

39. Encourages all relevant international, regional and subregional organizations and forums involved in the fight against terrorism to cooperate with the United Nations system and Member States in supporting the Strategy, noting recent initiatives in this regard;

40. Underscores the role of Counter Terrorism Executive Directorate within the United Nations including assessing issues and trends relating to the implementation of resolutions 1373 (2001) and 1624 (2005), in accordance with its mandate and resolution 2129 (2013) and to share information, as appropriate, with relevant United Nations counterterrorism bodies and relevant international, regional and subregional organizations;

41. Recognizes that Al Qaida and its affiliates continue to pose a widespread challenge in the fight against terrorism, and encourages Member States to integrate the Al-Qaida Sanctions regime pursuant to Security Council resolutions 1267 (1999) and 1889 (2011) into their national and regional terrorism strategies, including by proposing for inclusion on the Al Qaida Sanctions List names of individuals and entities, and takes note of the Office of the Ombudsperson's significant contribution since its establishment in providing fairness and transparency to the Al-Qaida Sanctions Regime, and stresses the need to continue efforts to ensure that procedures are fair and clear;

42. Underlines the importance of enhancing counter-terrorism efforts undertaken by all relevant United Nations agencies and bodies in accordance with their existing mandates, and encourages the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force to continue its collaboration with those agencies and bodies;

43. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its seventieth session, no later than April 2016 a report on progress made in the implementation of the Strategy since its adoption in September 2006, which could contain suggestions for its future implementation by the United Nations system, as well as on progress made in the implementation of the present resolution;

44. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its seventieth session the item entitled "The United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy" in order to undertake, by June 2016, an examination of the report of the Secretary-General requested in paragraph 43 above, as well as the implementation of the Strategy by Member States, and to consider updating the Strategy to respond to changes.
