United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea
Montego Bay, 10 December 1982

Receipt of the submission made by the Kingdom of Denmark to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf

The Secretary-General of the United Nations communicates the following.

On 2 December 2010, the Kingdom of Denmark submitted to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf, in accordance with Article 76, paragraph 8, of the Convention, information on the limits of the continental shelf beyond 200 nautical miles from the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured regarding the Southern Continental Shelf of the Faroe Islands, the Faroe-Rockall Plateau Region.

The Convention entered into force for Denmark on 16 December 2004.

According to the submitting State, this is a partial submission of the Government of the Kingdom of Denmark together with the Government of the Faroes. Furthermore, Denmark "intends to submit separate information on maritime areas north, north-east, and south of Greenland...".

In accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Commission (CLCS/40/Rev.1), the present communication is circulated to all Member States of the United Nations, as well as States Parties to the Convention in order to make public the executive summary of the submission, including all charts and coordinates contained in that summary. The executive summary of the submission is available on the website of the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea, Office of Legal Affairs, at: www.un.org/Depts/los.

The consideration of the submission made by Denmark will be included in the provisional agenda of the twenty-seventh session of the Commission scheduled to be held in New York from 7 March to 21 April 2011.

Upon completion of the consideration of the submission, the Commission will make recommendations pursuant to Article 76 of the Convention.
