

REFERENCE: CLCS.83.2019.LOS (Continental Shelf Notification)

17 April 2019

United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea concluded at Montego Bay, Jamaica on 10 December 1982

Receipt of the partial Submission made by the Republic of Indonesia to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf with respect to the Area of North of Papua (Eauripik Rise)

The Secretary-General of the United Nations communicates the following:

On 11 April 2019, the Republic of Indonesia submitted to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf, in accordance with article 76, paragraph 8, of the Convention, information on the limits of the continental shelf beyond 200 nautical miles from the baselines from which the breadth of its territorial sea is measured with respect of the Area of North of Papua (Eauripik Rise).

It is noted that the Convention entered into force for Indonesia on 16 November 1994.

According to Indonesia, this is a partial submission. Indonesia reserves its right to make additional submissions to the Commission with respect to other areas.

In accordance with the rules of procedure of the Commission, the present communication is being circulated to all Member States of the United Nations, as well as States Parties to the Convention, in order to make public the executive summary of the Submission, including all illustrative maps and coordinates contained therein. The executive summary of the Submission is available on the website of the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea, Office of Legal Affairs, at: www.un.org/Depts/los.

The consideration of the partial submission made by Indonesia will be included in the provisional agenda of the fifty-second session of the Commission to be held in New York between January and March 2020.

Upon completion of the consideration of the Submission, the Commission will issue recommendations pursuant to article 76 of the Convention.
