

10 September 2007

Dear Excellency,

I am writing to follow up on my letter dated 3 August 2007, in which I outlined my intention to hold a meeting for the Open-ended Working Group on the Question of Equitable Representation on and increase in the Membership of the Security Council Other Matters Related to the Security Council on 5 September 2007, in order to consider and adopt the draft report of the Working Group and recommend it to the General Assembly.

As you are well aware, the aforementioned meeting had to be rescheduled to a later date, in order to attempt to reach consensus among the Membership. I have held extensive consultations in the last ten days with Member States who wanted to amend the text of the report as well as those who proposed additions. While all Member States approached the matter in a constructive and flexible manner, this process did not result in achieving the agreement I was aspiring for.

In light of the time constraints of the current session of the Assembly, which officially concludes on 17 September 2007, and the remaining pending issues on the agenda of the 61st session that need to be concluded before then, and in view of the need to continue the work of the OEWG in the 62nd session while preserving and building on the positive momentum and spirit created in the 61st session, I am obliged to attach herewith a revised draft of the report that was circulated on the 3 August. I find that the attached version reflects, in my view, the only basis to achieve the broadest possible understanding necessary to conclude our work this session, and in order to ensure that the corresponding item remains on the agenda of the 62nd Session.

Therefore, it is my intention to convene a formal meeting of the Open-ended Working Group on Wednesday, 12 September in room 1, at 3 PM to consider and adopt the draft report. By adopting this draft, the report will be issued in the appropriate format and timing for the Assembly to take action on it by 17 September 2007.

Once again, I appeal to all Member States to exhibit the necessary constructiveness and flexibility in this regard, so that we could continue to move forward on this very important outstanding reform issue, which we all aspire to achieve as an integral part of the 2005 World Summit Outcome.

Please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.

Open-ended Working Group on the Question of Equitable Representation on and Increase in the Membership of the Security Council and Other Matters related to the Security Council

Draft report submitted by the Chairperson

I. Introduction

1. In its resolution 48/26 of 3 December 1993, the General Assembly decided to establish an open-ended working group to consider all aspects of the question of increase in the membership of the Security Council and other matters related to the Council.
2. The Open-ended Working Group on the Question of Equitable Representation on and Increase in the Membership of the Security Council and Other Matters related to the Security Council began its deliberations in January 1994. The Working Group submitted progress reports to the General Assembly at its forty-eighth to sixtieth sessions. At those sessions, the Assembly extended the mandate of the Working Group.
3. On 23 November 1998, the General Assembly adopted resolution 53/30 in connection with the agenda item of the Working Group entitled "Majority required for taking decisions on Security Council reform".
4. In the United Nations Millennium Declaration, Heads of State and Government resolved, in respect of ongoing deliberations on Security Council reform, to intensify their efforts to achieve comprehensive reform of the Council in all its aspects (see General Assembly resolution 55/2, annex, para. 30).
5. In the 2005 World Summit Outcome of 16 September 2005, Heads of State and Government expressed support for early reform of the Security Council and recommended that the Security Council continue to adapt its working methods (see General Assembly resolution 60/1, paras. 153 and 154).
6. Following the deliberations of the Working Group, the General Assembly, in its decision 60/568, decided that the Working Group should continue its work and should submit a report to the Assembly before the end of the sixty-first session, including any agreed recommendations. The present report is submitted pursuant to that decision.

II. Sixty-first session of the General Assembly

7. The issue of the reform of the Security Council continues to be among those issues addressed at the annual general debate of the General Assembly. Many Heads of State and Government and other high-level representatives of Member States expressed the views of their Governments on the issue during the general debate of the sixty-first session of the General Assembly, held from 19 to 27 September 2006.

8. Member States also expressed their views on the reform of the Security Council when the General Assembly discussed the item entitled "Question of equitable representation on and increase in the membership of the Security Council and related matters" (item 111) on 11 and 12 December 2006 (see A/61/PV.72-75).

III. Proceedings of the Open-ended Working Group during the sixty-first session of the General Assembly

A. Organizational matters

9. The President of the General Assembly, Haya Rashed al-Khalifa (Bahrain), served as Chairperson of the Working Group.

Mavroyiannis (Cyprus), Ambassador Frank Majoor (Netherlands) and Ambassador Ali Hachani (Tunisia), were appointed as facilitators by the Chairperson, on 8 February 2007, to interact with all Member States and to report back to her on the outcome of their consultations by the end of March 2007.

15. During the sixty-first session of the General Assembly, the facilitators conducted extensive informal consultations with various individual and groups of delegations. They also convened a number of informal meetings of the Working Group.

16. From 20 to 23 February 2007, the facilitators separately chaired six informal meetings at which the five themes proposed by the Chairperson were discussed. The facilitators also jointly convened an informal interactive panel discussion on all five themes, on 13 March. A report of the facilitators on the discussions at the informal meetings and the succeeding informal consultations was submitted to the Chairperson on 19 April 2007 and circulated to all Member States on 20 April 2007 (see annex I).*
