

THE PRESIDENT
OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

19 January, 2015

Excellency

I have the honour to transmit a letter dated 16 January, 2015, in which the Chair of the Intergovernmental Negotiations on Security Council reform H.E. Courtenay Rattray, Permanent Representative of Jamaica informs that he will be convening a meeting on 11 February, 2015 to provide Member States an opportunity to exchange ideas on how to best structure the work in advance of the resumption of the Intergovernmental Negotiations.

I encourage you to actively participate in the meeting which will take place at 10:00 a.m. in the Trusteeship Council Chamber.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

16 January 2015

Excellency,

It is my honour to write to you in my capacity as Chair of the Intergovernmental Negotiations on Security Council reform.

Since my last communication with you in my letter dated 17 December 2014, I have continued my consultations with Member States, gaining an understanding of your thoughts and views on both Security Council reform and the Intergovernmental Negotiations process. This has been a very valuable exercise, and at this stage, I feel that it is also important that Member States begin to hear each other's thoughts and views on the work ahead of us.

I have, therefore, decided to hold a meeting on the 11th of February 2015, in the Trusteeship Council Chamber, with the time to be announced in the UN Journal.

This initial meeting has been scheduled with a view to providing Member States an opportunity to exchange ideas on how to best structure our work in advance of the resumption of the Intergovernmental Negotiations. I look forward to your active participation.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
