

26 June 2015

Statement of H.E. Mr. Sam Kahamba Kutesa,
President of the 69th Session of the General Assembly, on the Terrorist Attacks in Tunisia, France and Kuwait

The President of the United Nations General Assembly, H.E. Sam Kutesa, condemns in the strongest possible terms the terrorist attacks which took place today, 26 June 2015, in Sousse, Tunisia, Saint-Quentin-Fallavie, France and Kuwait City, Kuwait.

“The unrelenting wave of terrorist attacks across the world today, across three continents, are a reminder of the the need for continued resolve and cooperation by Member States to combat intolerance and violent extremism”, said President Kutesa today.

The President of the General Assembly extends condolences to the families of the victims of today’s deplorable attacks. He also extends his sympathies to the respective governments and peoples of Tunisia, France and Kuwait as well as to those countries that lost citizens in these unjustifiable and murderous attacks.