

THE PRESIDENT OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

5 April 2017

Excellency,

In my letter dated 23 March 2017, I had conveyed a message from the co-facilitators containing a compilation of all written inputs received from Member States on the draft Modalities resolution for the High-level meeting of the General Assembly on the appraisal of the United Nations Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons. I am now pleased to forward a new letter from the co-facilitators, which includes a revised draft of the Modalities resolution following the second informal held successfully on 28 March 2017. The co-facilitators also announce that the next informal will be held on Wednesday 12 April at 10.00 a.m. in Conference Room 1.

I encourage the active participation and engagement of all Member States in the upcoming informal on 12 April.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Modalities, format and organization of the high-level meeting of the General Assembly on the appraisal of the United Nations Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons

The General Assembly,

PP1 Recalling its resolution 70/179 of 17 December 2015, in which it recalled the holding of the high-level meeting of the General Assembly during its sixty-seventh session, from 13 to 15 May 2013 to appraise the progress achieved in the implementation of the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons¹, and its decision to appraise on a four-year basis starting at its seventy-second session, the progress achieved in the implementation of the Global Plan of Action, in order to assess achievements, gaps and challenges, including in the implementation of the relevant legal instruments, and therefore decided to convene, within existing resources, a high-level meeting of the General Assembly at its seventy-second session, in October 2017, immediately after the general debate, (based on PP1, A/Res/67/260 and OP4, A/Res/70/179)

PP2 Recalling also its resolution 64/293 of 30 July 2010, by which it adopted the Global Plan of Action, (PP2, A/Res/67/260)

PP3 Recalling further its resolution 55/25 of 15 November 2000, by which it adopted the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime² and the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime³, (PP3, A/Res/67/260)

PP4 Recalling its resolution 70/1 of 25 September 2015, entitled “Transforming our world: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development”,

1. Decides that the high-level meeting of the General Assembly on the appraisal of the United Nations Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons will be held from Wednesday, 27 September to Thursday, 28 September 2017, and will consist of an opening plenary meeting on 27 September from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m., plenary meetings on 27 September from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and on 28 September from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m., and a closing plenary meeting after the list of speakers has been exhausted, as well as two consecutive interactive panel discussions on 27 September in the afternoon; (based on OP1, A/Res/67/260)

2. Also decides that:

² United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 2225, No. 39574.

³ Ibid, vol. 2237, No. 39574.

(a) The opening plenary meeting will feature statements by the President of the 72nd Session of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General, the Executive Director of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and the UN Special Rapporteur on trafficking in persons, especially women and children, as well as an eminent person actively engaged in the fight against trafficking in persons and a representative from civil society, at least one of whom should be a survivor of human trafficking; both of whom are to be identified by the President of the Assembly; (based on OP2, A/Res/67/260 and OP1(b), A/Res/70/290)

(b) The plenary meeting will hear statements by Member States, observer States and intergovernmental organizations and entities that have observer status with the General Assembly, the list of speakers will be established in accordance with the rules of procedure and established practices of the Assembly and the time limit for these statements will be four minutes; (OP1(d), A/Res/70/290)

3. Further decides that the organizational arrangements for the interactive panel discussions to take place on Wednesday, 27 September 2017, in the afternoon, each chaired by a Member State at the invitation of the President of 71st Session of the General Assembly, after consultations with regional groups, will be as follows: (based on OP3, A/Res/67/260)

(a) Interactive panel discussion 1, which will take place from 3 p.m. to 4.30 p.m., will address the theme “The Global Plan of Action and the prevention and prosecution of trafficking in persons, also taking into consideration the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals”;

(b) Interactive panel discussion 2, which will take place from 4.30 p.m. to 6 p.m., will address the theme “The Global Plan of Action and protection of and assistance to victims, including through the United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund for Victims of Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, also taking into consideration the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals”;

(c) The Chairs of the interactive panel discussions will present summaries of the discussions at the closing plenary meeting, followed by final remarks by the President of the General Assembly; (OP3(c), A/Res/67/260)

(d) In order to promote interactive and substantive discussions, participation in each panel discussion will include Member States, observers, representatives of United Nations organizations and entities, and representatives of international, regional and subregional organizations, as well as of civil society, including non-governmental organizations, academic institutions, the private sector and the media; (based on OP3(d), A/Res/67/260)

4. Invites Member States, observer States and intergovernmental organizations and entities that have observer status with the General Assembly to be represented at the highest possible level; (OP2, A/Res/70/290)

5. Encourages Member States to consider including in their delegations to the high-level meeting members of national human rights institutions, representatives of civil society active in combating trafficking in persons, survivors of trafficking in persons and representatives of the private sector; (based on OP6, A/Res/67/260)

6. Invites all relevant United Nations system entities, in particular the Inter-Agency Coordination Group against Trafficking in Persons, including programmes, funds, specialized agencies and regional commissions, as well as relevant intergovernmental, regional and subregional organizations, to participate in the high-level meeting; (based on OP7, A/Res/67/260 and OP6, A/Res/70/297)

7. Also invites interested representatives of non-governmental organizations that are in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council to register with the Secretariat in order to participate in the high-level meeting; (based on OP8, A/Res/67/260 and OP6(a), A/71/L.58)

8. Requests the President of the General Assembly at its seventy-first session to draw up a list of other relevant representatives of relevant non-governmental organizations, civil society organizations, academic institutions and the private sector who may attend the high-level meeting and participate in the interactive panel discussions, taking into account the principles of transparency and of equitable geographical representation, and with due regard to the meaningful participation of women, and to submit the list to Member States for their consideration on a non-objection basis⁴; (based on OP6, 70/290)

9. Also requests the President of the General Assembly at its seventy-first session, as part of the preparatory process for the high-level meeting, to organize, no later than July 2017, and to preside over, a one-day informal interactive multi-stakeholder hearing, attended by representatives of Member States, observer States and intergovernmental organizations and entities that have observer status with the Assembly, as well as by non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council, invited civil society organizations, academic institutions and the private sector, and requests the President to prepare a summary of the hearing; (based on OP7, A/Res/70/290)

10. Further requests the President of the General Assembly at its seventy-first session to hold open, transparent and inclusive intergovernmental negotiations with all

⁴ The list of proposed as well as final names will be brought to the attention of the General Assembly. Where a name is objected to, the objecting Member State will, on a voluntary basis, make known to the Office of the President of the General Assembly the general basis of its objections and the Office will share any information received with any Member State upon its request.

Member States, through two co-facilitators to be appointed by the President, with a view to producing a short and concise political declaration for adoption at the opening plenary of the high-level meeting, on the implementation of the Global Plan of Action in order to assess achievements, gaps and challenges, including in the implementation of the relevant legal instruments; (based on OP10 and OP1(c), A/Res/70/290; OP5, A/Res/70/181; and OP4, A/Res/70/179)

11. Requests the President of the General Assembly, in consultation with Member States, to finalize the organizational arrangements for the meetings, taking into account the duration of the meetings, the identification of the eminent person and the representative from civil society to speak at the opening plenary meeting and the identification of Chairs for the interactive panel discussions, bearing in mind the level of representation as well as equitable geographical representation; (based on OP10, A/Res/67/260)

12. Encourages Member States, United Nations entities, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, private sector entities and other relevant stakeholders to consider supporting the participation of representatives from developing countries, including representatives of non-governmental organizations from those countries, in order to ensure the broadest possible participation, and requests the Secretary-General to take all necessary measures in this regard; (OP11, A/Res/67/260)

13. Decides that the proceedings of the high-level meeting shall be webcast; (OP12, A/Res/67/260)

14. Encourages Member States and other stakeholders to continue to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund for Victims of Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, which was established by the Global Plan of Action. (OP13, A/Res/67/260)
