TUESDAY 25 OCTOBER 2022

14:00 - 15:30 (EDT)

PERMANENT MISSION OF IRELAND TO THE UNITED NATIONS
885 2ND AVENUE, 21ST FLOOR, NEW YORK, NY 10017

This event aims to bring together key interlocutors to reflect on the rising misuse of countering the financing of terrorism (CFT) measures across the globe, including the targeting of human rights defenders, humanitarian actors, and civil society. The event will trace the evolution of State CFT practices, including pursuant to Security Council Resolutions 1373 and 2462 and the Financial Action Task Force Recommendations, assess recent challenges to State compliance, and identify collaborative solutions to the existing accountability gap.

SPEAKERS

- H.E. Ambassador Fergal Mythen, Permanent Representative of Ireland to the United Nations
- Professor Fionnuala Ní Aoláin, UN Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of human rights & fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism
- Elisa de Anda Madrazo, Vice President, Financial Action Task Force
- Lia van Broekhoven, Human Security Collective Co-Founder and Executive Director, on behalf of the Global NPO Coalition on the Financial Action Task Force
- Moderator: Ashleigh C. Subramanian-Montgomery, Associate Director, Policy & Advocacy, Charity & Security Network
