

Permanent Mission of the Federal Republic of Germany
to the United Nations
New York

INTERNATIONAL
NUREMBERG
PRINCIPLES
ACADEMY

INVITATION

“Gender-based violence in international law” A Side Event on the occasion of International Law Week

Thursday, 26 October 2023, 1.15-2.45 pm

Permanent Mission of Germany to the United Nations (Auditorium)
871 United Nations Plaza, New York, NY 10017

The Permanent Mission of Germany has the pleasure to invite you to a lunchtime panel debate, organized by the International Nuremberg Principles Academy, on the topic of “Gender-based violence in international law”.

-Introductory remarks

Tania von Uslar, Director-General for Legal Affairs, Federal Foreign Office (Berlin)

-Moderator

Christoph Safferling, Director, International Nuremberg Principles Academy (Nuremberg)

-Panelists

Sofia Candeias, UN Team of Experts, Rule of Law/Sexual Violence in Conflict (New York)

Lisa Davis, Special Advisor on Gender Persecution to the ICC Prosecutor, CUNY (New York)

Ute Hohoff, Judge at the Federal Court of Justice (Karlsruhe)

The side event will offer States representatives and civil society an opportunity to engage in discussions about sexual violence in armed conflicts, the phenomenology and the criminalization. The panelists are scholars and practitioners with vast experience in prosecuting war crimes before international and domestic courts and know about the difficulties both regarding the substance of the law and procedure in trial concerning gender-based violence.

Please register online at

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/side-event-gender-based-violence-in-international-law-tickets-740790011867?aff=oddtcreator>

by 25 October 2023.

Light lunch will be served as of 12.45 pm.