Permanent Mission of the Republic of Equatorial Guinea to the United Nations

No. 093/MPGE-NY/024/FJT/ANM

Note verbale

The Permanent Mission of the Republic of Equatorial Guinea to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and, in accordance with paragraphs 11 and 13 of General Assembly resolution 77/108 of 7 December 2022, entitled “Consideration of effective measures to enhance the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives”, has the honour to transmit the following information.

No offences against the protection, security and safety of diplomatic missions and consular offices, or against representatives with diplomatic or consular status, have been recorded in the national territory of the Republic of Equatorial Guinea during the period under review.

However, as a precautionary measure, the Government of Equatorial Guinea has formally invited accredited diplomatic missions and international organizations with diplomatic status to communicate any requests for reinforcement of the security measures in the vicinity of their premises as soon as the need arises. It also regularly organizes awareness-raising seminars for non-diplomatic officials on the duty to respect diplomatic immunities and privileges.

Secretary-General of the United Nations
New York

The Permanent Mission of Equatorial Guinea to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Secretary-General of the United Nations the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
