

UNITED NATIONS APPEALS TRIBUNAL
TRIBUNAL D'APPEL DES NATIONS UNIES

Case Nos. 2010-162 & 163

Yapa
(Respondent/Appellant)

v.

Secretary-General of the United Nations (Appellant/Respondent)

CASE CONSOLIDATION ORDER

Before: Judge Sophia Adinyira, President

Order No.: 67 (2011)

Date: 6 October 2011

Registrar: Weicheng Lin

Counsel for Respondent/Appellant: Laurent Hirsch

Counsel for Appellant/Respondent: Phyllis Hwang/Stéphanie Cartier

THE UNITED NATIONS APPEALS TRIBUNAL

Order No. 67 (2011)

I, JUDGE SOPHIA ADINYIRA, President of the United Nations Appeals Tribunal,

CONSIDERING that the Secretary-General and Rohita Yapa (Yapa) have both appealed Judgment No. UNDT/2010/169 of the United Nations Dispute Tribunal, which was rendered on 24 September 2010;

ALSO CONSIDERING that the two appeals against the same Judgment involve a common set of facts, and that the consolidation of them will serve judicial economy and consistency without changing or affecting the rights of the parties;

ORDER that the Secretary-General's appeal (Case No. 2010-162) and Yapa's appeal (Case No. 2010-163) against Judgment No. UNDT/2010/169 be consolidated for review by a single panel of the Appeals Tribunal during its 2011 fall session.

Original and Authoritative Version: English

Dated this 6th day of October 2011 in Accra, Ghana.

(Signed)

Judge Adinyira, President

Entered in the Register on this 6th day of October 2011 in New York, United States.

(Signed)

Weicheng Lin, Registrar