UNITED NATIONS APPEALS TRIBUNAL TRIBUNAL D'APPEL DES NATIONS UNIES

---

Case No. 2014-668

Likuyani (Applicant)

v.

Secretary-General of the United Nations (Respondent)

ORDER No. 218 (2015)

1. On 20 October 2014, Mr. Aineah Likuyani filed an application for revision of Judgment No. 2013-UNAT-297 which was rendered by the Appeals Tribunal on 28 March 2013 in the case of Likuyani v. the Secretary-General of the United Nations. On 24 November 2014, the Secretary-General filed his answer. On 16 March 2015, Mr. Likuyani filed a “Motion for Leave to File an Additional Pleadings” (sic), which he refiled on 1 April 2015 and, on 13 April 2015, the Secretary-General filed his observations.

2. The Appeals Tribunal has previously held that, under Article 31(1) of its Rules of Procedure and Section II.A.3 of its Practice Direction No. 1, the Appeals Tribunal may allow a motion requesting leave to file additional pleadings after the filing of the answer to the appeal if there are exceptional circumstances justifying the motion.

3. The Appeals Tribunal finds that Mr. Likuyani’s submissions concerning the time limit in which to file an application for revision are misplaced. Furthermore, in his own words, the remainder of his submissions merely “reiterate[] his comments in his application for revision”. As he has not demonstrated the existence of exceptional circumstances justifying the need to file an additional submission, I dismiss Mr. Likuyani’s motion.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Mr. Likuyani’s motion IS DISMISSED.
