

UNITED NATIONS APPEALS TRIBUNAL TRIBUNAL D'APPEL DES NATIONS UNIES

ORDER No. 391 (2020)

Order of the President

On 19 October 2020, the Judges of the United Nations Appeals Tribunal (Appeals Tribunal) met remotely in plenary session and, pursuant to Article 32(1) of the Rules of Procedure of the Appeals Tribunal (Rules), decided to amend Articles 24 to 27 of the Rules to read as follows (amendments in italics):

Article 24 Revision of Judgements

Either party may apply to the Appeals Tribunal, on a prescribed form, for a revision of a judgement on the basis of the discovery of a decisive fact that was, at the time the judgement was rendered, unknown to the Appeals Tribunal and to the party applying for revision, always provided that such ignorance was not due to negligence. The application for revision will be sent to the other party, who has 30 days to submit comments to the Registrar on a prescribed form. The application for revision must be made within 30 calendar days of the discovery of the fact and within one year of the date of the judgement. The brief that accompanies the application for revision and the comments thereon shall not exceed five pages.

Article 25 Interpretation of judgements

Either party may apply to the Appeals Tribunal for an interpretation of the meaning or scope of a judgement on a prescribed form. The application for interpretation shall be sent to the other party, who shall have 30 days to submit comments on the application on a prescribed form. The Appeals Tribunal will decide whether to admit the application for interpretation and, if it does so, shall issue its interpretation. The brief that accompanies the application for interpretation and the comments thereon shall not exceed two pages.

Article 26 Correction of Judgements

Clerical or arithmetical mistakes, or errors arising from any accidental slip or omission, may at any time be corrected by the Appeals Tribunal, either on its own initiative or on the application by any of the parties on a prescribed form. The brief that accompanies the application for correction shall not exceed two pages.

Article 27

Execution of judgements

Where a judgement requires execution within a certain period of time and such execution has not been carried out, either party may apply to the Appeals Tribunal for an order for execution of the judgement. The brief that accompanies the application for execution shall not exceed two pages.

Pursuant to Article 32(1) of the Rules, the amendments shall operate provisionally until approved by the General Assembly.
