AUDA

v.

SECRETARY-GENERAL
OF THE UNITED NATIONS

---

CORRIGENDUM

---

Counsel for Applicant:
Self-represented

Counsel for Respondent:
ALS/OHRM, UN Secretariat

1. TAKING NOTE of paras. 1 to 7 of Order No. 156 (NY/2016) issued on 30 June 2016 in Case No. UNDT/NY/2016/028 (Auda) and published on 1 July 2016 which was not a part of the case No. UNDT/NY/2016/036;
2. TAKING FURTHER NOTE of the provisions of art. 28 of the Rules of Procedure;
3. Pursuant to art. 12, para. 2 of the Statute of the Dispute Tribunal and art. 31 of the Rules of Procedure, the Tribunal orders a corrigendum of Judgment No. UNDT/NY/2016/106 as follows:

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

4. Paragraph 2, as corrected on 9 August 2016, reads:

“As a preliminary issue, the Tribunal will examine the receivability of the application as it raises an issue of ratione materiae, notably of whether this is a type of decision over which this Tribunal has jurisdiction and therefore competence under the Dispute Tribunal Statute because the present case rightly concerns a decision that was taken by Judge Greceanu, United Nations Dispute Tribunal, New York, and not the Registrar, as otherwise submitted by the Applicant.”

It is to be read as follows:

“As a preliminary issue, the Tribunal will examine the receivability of the application as it raises an issue of ratione materiae, notably of whether this is a type of decision over which this Tribunal has jurisdiction and therefore competence under the Dispute Tribunal Statute.”

5. Paragraph 5 reads:

“The Judge, the Registrar and the Legal Assistant who handled the issue at hand at the Dispute Tribunal have all recused themselves from the decision-making process with the present case. As no question of conflict of interest exists, the Tribunal finds that a transfer of the case is not necessary (see also Bastet 2014-UNAT-423, para. 15, in which the Appeals Tribunal found that “the Dispute Tribunal’s decision to transfer his case to Geneva falls squarely within the jurisdiction and competence of the [Tribunal]”).”

It is to read:

“As no question of conflict of interest exists, the Tribunal finds that a transfer of the case is not necessary (see also Bastet 2014-UNAT-423, para. 15, in which the Appeals Tribunal found that “the Dispute Tribunal’s decision to transfer his case to Geneva falls squarely within the jurisdiction and competence of the [Tribunal]”).”

6. Paragraph 10 reads:

“From the Registry’s 29 June 2016 email, it follows without question that the rejection of creating a “separate case” for the Applicant’s motion for interim relief in Case No. UNDT/NY/2016/028 was done pursuant to the instructions of Judge Greceanu. The contested decision not to open a separate case for this motion was made by Judge Greceanu and not the Registrar, whose role was merely to communicate this decision to the Applicant.”

It is to read:

“From the Registry’s 29 June 2016 email, it follows without question that the rejection of creating a “separate case” for the Applicant’s motion for interim relief was decided in Case No. UNDT/NY/2016/028.”
