

Before: Judge Alexander W. Hunter, Jr.

Registry: New York

Registrar: Nerea Suero Fontecha

NOUINOU

v.

SECRETARY-GENERAL
OF THE UNITED NATIONS

ORDER

ON REQUEST FOR LEAVE TO FILE
NEW MOTION FOR INTERIM MEASURES

Counsel for Applicant:
Self-represented

Counsel for Respondent:
Alan Gutman ALD/OHR, UN Secretariat

Introduction

1. On 27 November 2018, the Applicant, a former Programme Management Assistant at the G-5 level, step 6, in the Office for Counter-Terrorism (“OCT”), filed an application on the merits contesting the decision to not extend her short-term appointment beyond its expiration date.

2. On 7 February 2019, the Applicant sought “[l]eave of the Tribunal to [f]ile new [i]nterim [m]easures related to her case”.

Consideration

3. In Order No. 24 (NY/2019) issued on 31 January 2019, in the interest of justice and to ensure the efficient management of the case, the Tribunal further directed the Applicant to seek leave of the Tribunal before filing any further motions and documents in this case.

4. In the instant submission, the Applicant seeks leave to “[f]ile new [i]nterim [m]easures related to her case”. However, the Applicant provides no explanation as to the nature of the interim measures she seeks. The Tribunal is therefore unable to determine if the requested filing is relevant.

5. The Tribunal therefore directs the Applicant to provide a succinct description of the measures she intends to request and a detailed explanation as to why such measures are required.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

6. The Applicant is to file a new submission providing a succinct description of the interim measures she intends to request with a detailed explanation as to why such measures are required.

(Signed)

Judge Alexander W. Hunter, Jr.

Dated this 8th day of February 2019