Introduction

1. On 22 September 2022, the Applicant, filed an application requesting urgent relief under art. 2.2 of the Dispute Tribunal’s Statute and art. 13 of its Rules of Procedure seeking to suspend, pending management evaluation, the decision to not renew her appointment.

2. Together with the application for suspension of action, the Applicant also filed a motion for suspension of the contested decision during the pendency of the Tribunal’s consideration of this application (a so-called Villamoran-type request).

Consideration

3. Article 13.3 (Suspension of action during a management evaluation) of the Tribunal’s Rules of Procedure provides that the Tribunal “shall consider an application for interim measures within five working days of the service of the application on the respondent”.

4. In Villamoran 2011-UNAT-160, the Appeals Tribunal upheld this Tribunal’s Villamoran Order No. 171 (NY/2011) finding that the Dispute Tribunal was within its competence to order a suspension of the contested decision pending the determination of the application for suspension of action without having to make a finding as to whether the requirements of a suspension of action under art. 2.2 of the Dispute Tribunal’s Statute and art. 13 of its Rules of Procedure had been met.

5. The Applicant submits that her appointment is to expire by 30 September 2022.

6. In order for the Tribunal to seek and consider the Respondent’s reply to the present suspension of action application,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

7. Without prejudice to the Dispute Tribunal's decision on the application for suspension of action under art. 2.2 of its Statute and art. 13 of its Rules of Procedure, the Respondent shall not undertake, as from the date and time of service of the present Order, any further steps regarding the contested decision.
