

Nobel Laureate and Chair of IPCC to Give Briefing on The Scientific Basis for Climate Policy

Wednesday, 26 August 2009
12:00 to 1:00 p.m.
ECOSOC Chamber

All are welcome to attend to a climate change briefing with IPCC Chairman and Nobel Prize Peace Prize Laureate Dr. Rajendra Pachauri. In the lead up to COP 15 in Copenhagen, this briefing will discuss science as the basis for action on climate change as well as the substantive issues to be discussed at Secretary General's Climate Change Summit to be held on 22 September.

This event is organized by the Missions of Pakistan and Sweden, with support from the UN-DESA Division for Sustainable Development (DSD). More information on this climate change speaker series can be found at <http://www.un.org/esa/dsd/>
