International Forests Short Film Festival

WINNING SHORT FILM | FEEL LIKE A MOUNTAIN

ABOUT THE FILM MAKER

Elio Alonso Vasquez Miranda was born in one of the most culturally vibrant cities in Latin America: UNESCO's World Cultural Heritage Arequipa, Peru, and was selected for Røde Kors Nordisk United World College in Norway, amongst the most notable international boarding schools in Europe.

His films focus on Social and Environmental Issues, with a TV advertisement for Norwegian National Television and short documentaries such as the life of Edwin Gonzales, victim of personnel landmines.

Award-winner at the United Nations Environmental Program, Green-Go Short Film Contest in Budapest, Chilean National Television Council, and nominee at The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, Faith Shorts Film Festival in London and Plural + Film Festival in New York (United Nations Alliance of Civilizations), Alonso's work was recognized by Ministry of Production of the Republic of Peru and premiered at the Meeting of the Parties regarding the 25th Anniversary Ceremony of the Montreal Protocol in Geneva, and the Oslo City Hall with Norway's Queen Sonja.
