

You are warmly invited to a

Partnership event on the MDGs Equity Challenge

Our expert panel will examine how support to health systems, innovative financing and the newest technologies will help address gender, geographic, ethnic and political inequities in access to basic health services as effective interventions are scaled up.

23 September 2008, 4:00 – 6:00 p.m.
(Refreshments from 6:00 – 6:45 p.m.)
Dag Hammarskjöld Library Auditorium,
the United Nations Headquarters,
New York

Co-hosted by:
the Permanent Mission of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia to the United Nations and UNAIDS

In collaboration with:
The Global Fund to Fight AIDS,
Tuberculosis and Malaria

The GAVI Alliance (formerly the Global Alliance for Vaccines and Immunisation)

and UNICEF

Featured speakers:

His Excellency Dr Tedros Adhanom, Minister of Health of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia

Michel Kazatchkine,
Executive Director, The Global Fund

Julian Lob-Levyt,
Executive Secretary, The GAVI Alliance

Peter Piot,
Executive Director, UNAIDS

Ann Veneman,
Executive Director, UNICEF

Moderated by:
Andrew Jack, The Financial Times

