

On the occasion of the 55th session of the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW)

You are cordially invited to a panel discussion

Gender, Technology & Peacebuilding Bridging the Israel-Palestine Divide

Despite ongoing difficulties in the Middle East peace process, Israeli and Palestinian civil society groups are working creatively to build consensus within their respective societies and between both communities. UN Women, WILPF and the OneVoice Movement come together in this panel to feature two extraordinary young women peace leaders: Roza Helou and Dana Sender.

Opened by Ambassador Anne Anderson, Permanent Representative of Ireland to the United Nations and moderated by UN Women Deputy Director Joanne Sandler, the discussion will explore how young women are using innovative web-based strategies to overcome physical and political barriers to political engagement.

Tuesday, February 22, 2011
1:15 – 2:45 p.m.

Permanent Mission of Ireland to the United Nations
885 Second Ave (entrance 48th street) Floor 19
New York

How can social media tools spark and sustain an international grassroots constituency for a just two-state solution?

RSVP required by February 18 to china@onevoicemovement.org

Light refreshments will be served

ONEVOICE קול אחד صوتنا فلسطين

www.onevoicemovement.org

www.wilpfinternational.org
www.peacewomen.org

United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women
www.unwomen.org

Permanent Mission of Ireland to the United Nations