PRICES AND HOTEL SECURITY

I. Prices

- A. Prices of hotels are subject to change.
- B. Prices do not include sales and occupancy taxes.

II. Hotel Security

ALWAYS:

- A. Keep your luggage in sight when checking into a residence. DO NOT abandon it unattended even for a moment.
- B. Place all valuables in residence safe deposit box as soon as possible and preferably when you are checking in.
- C. Close the door of your room by hand when leaving, to make sure that it is locked.
- D. Keep the door locked while you are in your room. When retiring for the night, use the double lock and chain.
- E. Lock your door by hand, even if leaving your room for a short period of time.
- F. Lock your luggage when not in use and place it in a closet.

If the closet has a lock, always use it.

- G. Protect your room key. Check with key procedures upon your arrival.
  - H. Notify the manager of any unusual occurrences, such as:
    - I. Individuals loitering in the corridor, repeated calls from unidentified callers, knocking on your door by persons who are unknown to you, or finding no one at the door when you answer it. Ask the manager to double lock your door when you go out if you are leaving valuables in your room which are too large to check at the front desk.
- Not all hotel residences provide this service, but make sure to ask if yours does.

NEVER

- A. Never display jewellery, money, or any other valuable items in your room, in front of residence personnel or strangers.
- B. Never invite strangers to your room.
- C. Never permit repairmen, window washers, etc., into your room without first checking with residence management.
- D. Never allow persons into your rooms with unsolicited deliveries.
- E. While socializing, do not reveal the name of your residence or room number to strangers.
- F. Never discuss specific future plans for a day away, etc., in front of residence personnel or strangers.
- G. Never carry room keys outside of residence unless permitted by management.
