

United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women

Change Makers and Peacekeepers Journey towards equal representation of women

Join us for a panel discussion featuring:

Admiral Mark E. Ferguson III, U.S. Navy Admiral, Vice Chief of Naval Operations

Ms. Lakshmi Puri, UN Women, Deputy Executive Director

Commissioner Anne-Marie Orlor, DPKO/DFS Chief Police Adviser

Lieutenant General Babacar Gaye, DPKO/DFS Chief Military Adviser

Ms. Elizabeth Spehar, DPA Director of Europe Division

Moderated by Ms. Aparna Mehrotra, UN Women, Focal Point for Women in the UN System

March 7, 2012
1:15 pm – 2:30 pm
UN Headquarters
North Lawn Building, Conference Room 4

Background: Since 2000, the U.S Navy has been on the forefront in increasing the representation of women. Similarly, Secretary- General Ban Ki-moon's agenda for change has included historic progress in the representation of women, especially at the highest levels and within it military and police peacekeeping contingents. This panel will be dedicated to hearing change makers, in the UN and outside as they share their vision, experience and insights.

For those needing special events pass, there will be officials from UN Women in the visitors entrance lobby of the UN on March 7th beginning at 10am.

FOR MORE INFORMATION
Please contact Ms. Janaki Murthy at Janaki.murthy@unwomen.org